

Brentwood to Broadway! New York Tour

February 8 to 13, 2018.

New York is considered the cultural, creative, artistic, and financial capital of the world. We will spend 5 days immersed in the sights and sounds of Manhattan, the Big Apple.

- Are you interested in Fashion?

We will be staying mere blocks from the Garment District of Manhattan, home to many fashion labels, showrooms and design houses.

- Are you interested in Drama and Musical Theatre?

This tour features four performances of On and Off-Broadway productions. Past tours have attended: Phantom of the Opera, Lion King, In the Heights, Wicked, A Chorus Line, Newsies, Cinderella, Les Miserables and The Glass Menagerie.

This time, options may include: Hamilton, Come from Away, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

- Are you interested in History?

New York hosts the American Museum of Natural History, Ellis Island, The Guggenheim Museum The Statue of Liberty and many other iconic expressions of human achievement

- Are you interested in World Diplomacy?

The United Nations Headquarters, in the Turtle District of Manhattan, is technically, not on US soil. Visitors must bring a valid passport from a member state to enter.

- Are you interested in Performance and Visual Arts?

Our trip includes a guided tour of some of the most compelling art galleries and installations through Chelsea.

To be considered to participate in this trip, and for more information, please submit an email to lorraine.blake@brentwood.bc.ca or don.armitage@brentwood.bc.ca or sign up in the Arts Office.
